

HARDING HITS AT 'PORK BARREL' APPROPRIATIONS

Continues His Attacks on
"One-Man Power" in Kentucky Speech.

ASHLAND, Ky., Sept. 28.—A Federal Government conducted under the co-ordinated powers of the Constitution and always taking the whole American people into its confidence was pictured by Senator Harding here to-day as the ideal toward which his party would work if returned to power.

"I very much wish the people to know my conception of the high place for which the Republican Party has proposed my name," he said. "I cannot express myself too strongly against one man Government with an untrammelled, centralized power. I am against the spirit of encroachment or assumption which may lead one of the great departments of our Government under the Constitution to invade or assume the functions of another. Washington warned against it in his farewell address."

"I did not much criticize the enlarged executive powers in the great war emergency. In most instances I voted for them when Congress hesitated. I only object to continuing these extraordinary war powers after the war was won.

"When I am elected there is going to be that regard and respect for Congress which the Constitution contemplates, and Congress must, in turn, respect the rights and obligations of the Executive. But I mean to do more than co-ordinate and co-operate with Congress. I am going to consult and converse with the men and women of America. I would rather trust the great undercurrent of American thought and conviction than follow the greatest propagandist programme ever inaugurated.

"Transportation is the very key to all our industrial, agricultural and commercial activities. There are still some ox-carts and isolated sections, but we are living in a motor age. We are doing bigger things than of old, and we do them in a bigger way. But nothing ought wholly to supersede the water highways. Our problem is to end expenditures which are made to rejoice a local community, and apply them effectively to make the waterways the ways of commerce."

Senator Harding then made an indirect attack on pork barrel legislation.

"I have witnessed the practice of favoring appropriation and know its unworthiness," he said, "and its utter lack of adding to our common welfare. I mean to urge the ending of it, and seek to apply our Federal resources to proving the utility of improved river ways before trying to satisfy a nation-wide desire to turn a Federal duty into Federal favor."

CITY TO HONOR ATHLETES.

Members of America's victorious Olympic team will be guests of New York City next Saturday, and after a parade down Fifth Avenue will be decorated with medals at City Hall by Mayor Hylan. F. W. Rubien, secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union, announced last night.

The athletes will have an escort of 1,500 police and numerous bands. At a banquet in the Waldorf-Astoria at night speeches will be made by Rear Admiral James H. Glennon, Major Gen. Robert L. Bullard and Gov. Smith.

New Jersey Democratic Convention Called.

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 28.—Charles F. McDonald, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, has issued the call for the State convention to be held here Tuesday to adopt a party platform and select electoral candidates. The convention will be made up of the candidates for State Assembly and Senate, present members of the Senate and members of the State committee. Gov. Edwards, as leader of the party, will also be a delegate.

Judges of Good Style
This Fall Say
Fernwood

It has a long, straight English toe with a slowly receding top slope. Its general contour is dashing and young-mannish. Yet it is restrained and dignified. It has more than ordinary "pop." There is ingenious refinement which commends itself to men of good taste.
